

Jakelin Caal Maquin Guatemala - Age 7 - December 8, 2018

Juan De Leon Gutierrez Guatemala - Age 16 - April 30, 2019

Felipe Gomez Alonzo Guatemala - Age 8 - December 24, 2018

Mariee Juarez Guatemala - Age 1 - May 10, 2018

Prayer for Children in Immigration Detention	Prayer for Children in Immigration Detention
We pray for the immigrant children who have died	We pray for the immigrant children who have died
in U.S. detention camps:	in U.S. detention camps:
May their souls rest in peace,	May their souls rest in peace,
May their families find solace.	May their families find solace.
May their memory move us	May their memory move us
Not to peace but to outrage,	Not to peace but to outrage,
Then to advocacy and action.	Then to advocacy and action.
We pray for the children	We pray for the children
Still in detention camps, confused,	Still in detention camps, confused,
afraid, longing for some security,	afraid, longing for some security,
Longing for family to console them.	Longing for family to console them.
May we recognize them as	May we recognize them as
Our children, needing our love,	Our children, needing our love,
Our care and protection.	Our care and protection.
May we be present to their suffering,	May we be present to their suffering,
And may it move us to active concern	And may it move us to active concern
So we can work toward the day	So we can work toward the day
No children are detained but rather	No children are detained but rather Welcomed into our communities,	Welcomed into our communities,
Welcomed as family to our tables.	Welcomed as family to our tables.
In Christ's name we pray, Amen.	In Christ's name we pray, Amen.
 Jane Deren, Ph.D., Education for Justice http://bit.ly/CatholicAction4ImmigrantChildren 	 Jane Deren, Ph.D., Education for Justice http://bit.ly/CatholicAction4ImmigrantChildren
http://oit.ty/CationeAction+intingrantenneten	http://ok.ty/CationeAction+initingranterindren
Prayer for Children in Immigration Detention	Prayer for Children in Immigration Detention
Prayer for Children in Immigration Detention We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps:	Prayer for Children in Immigration Detention We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps:
We pray for the immigrant children who have died	We pray for the immigrant children who have died
We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps:	We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps:
We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us	We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us
We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage,	We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage,
We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us	We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us
We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children	We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children
We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused,	We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused,
We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused, afraid, longing for some security,	 We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused, afraid, longing for some security,
We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused, afraid, longing for some security, Longing for family to console them.	 We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused, afraid, longing for some security, Longing for family to console them.
We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused, afraid, longing for some security, Longing for family to console them. May we recognize them as	 We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused, afraid, longing for some security, Longing for family to console them. May we recognize them as
We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused, afraid, longing for some security, Longing for family to console them. May we recognize them as Our children, needing our love,	 We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused, afraid, longing for some security, Longing for family to console them. May we recognize them as Our children, needing our love,
We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused, afraid, longing for some security, Longing for family to console them. May we recognize them as	 We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused, afraid, longing for some security, Longing for family to console them. May we recognize them as
We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused, afraid, longing for some security, Longing for family to console them. May we recognize them as Our children, needing our love, Our care and protection. May we be present to their suffering,	 We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused, afraid, longing for some security, Longing for family to console them. May we recognize them as Our children, needing our love, Our care and protection. May we be present to their suffering,
We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused, afraid, longing for some security, Longing for family to console them. May we recognize them as Our children, needing our love, Our care and protection. May we be present to their suffering, And may it move us to active concern	 We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused, afraid, longing for some security, Longing for family to console them. May we recognize them as Our children, needing our love, Our care and protection. May we be present to their suffering, And may it move us to active concern
We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused, afraid, longing for some security, Longing for family to console them. May we recognize them as Our children, needing our love, Our care and protection. May we be present to their suffering, And may it move us to active concern So we can work toward the day	 We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused, afraid, longing for some security, Longing for family to console them. May we recognize them as Our children, needing our love, Our care and protection. May we be present to their suffering, And may it move us to active concern So we can work toward the day
We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused, afraid, longing for some security, Longing for family to console them. May we recognize them as Our children, needing our love, Our care and protection. May we be present to their suffering, And may it move us to active concern So we can work toward the day No children are detained but rather	 We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused, afraid, longing for some security, Longing for family to console them. May we recognize them as Our children, needing our love, Our care and protection. May we be present to their suffering, And may it move us to active concern So we can work toward the day No children are detained but rather
We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused, afraid, longing for some security, Longing for family to console them. May we recognize them as Our children, needing our love, Our care and protection. May we be present to their suffering, And may it move us to active concern So we can work toward the day No children are detained but rather Welcomed into our communities,	 We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused, afraid, longing for some security, Longing for family to console them. May we recognize them as Our children, needing our love, Our care and protection. May we be present to their suffering, And may it move us to active concern So we can work toward the day No children are detained but rather Welcomed into our communities,
We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused, afraid, longing for some security, Longing for family to console them. May we recognize them as Our children, needing our love, Our care and protection. May we be present to their suffering, And may it move us to active concern So we can work toward the day No children are detained but rather Welcomed into our communities, Welcomed as family to our tables.	 We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused, afraid, longing for some security, Longing for family to console them. May we recognize them as Our children, needing our love, Our care and protection. May we be present to their suffering, And may it move us to active concern So we can work toward the day No children are detained but rather Welcomed into our communities, Welcomed as family to our tables.
We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused, afraid, longing for some security, Longing for family to console them. May we recognize them as Our children, needing our love, Our care and protection. May we be present to their suffering, And may it move us to active concern So we can work toward the day No children are detained but rather Welcomed into our communities,	 We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused, afraid, longing for some security, Longing for family to console them. May we recognize them as Our children, needing our love, Our care and protection. May we be present to their suffering, And may it move us to active concern So we can work toward the day No children are detained but rather Welcomed into our communities,

Carlos Gregorio Hernandez Vasquez ^{Guatemala -} Age 16 - May 20, 2019

Darlyn Cristabel Cordova Valle El Salvador - Age 10 - May 29, 2019

Wilmer Josué Ramírez Vázquez _{Guatemala - Age 2 - May 14, 2019}

Prayer for Children in Immigration Detention	Prayer for Children in Immigration Detention
We pray for the immigrant children who have died	We pray for the immigrant children who have died
in U.S. detention camps:	in U.S. detention camps:
May their souls rest in peace,	May their souls rest in peace,
May their families find solace.	May their families find solace.
May their memory move us	May their memory move us
Not to peace but to outrage,	Not to peace but to outrage,
Then to advocacy and action.	Then to advocacy and action.
 We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused,	 We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused,
afraid, longing for some security,	afraid, longing for some security,
Longing for family to console them. May we recognize them as Our children, needing our love,	Longing for family to console them. May we recognize them as Our children, needing our love,
Our care and protection. May we be present to their suffering,	Our care and protection. May we be present to their suffering,
And may it move us to active concern So we can work toward the day No children are detained but rather Welcomed into our communities, Welcomed as family to our tables. In Christ's name we pray, Amen. Jane Deren, Ph.D., Education for Justice	And may it move us to active concern So we can work toward the day No children are detained but rather Welcomed into our communities, Welcomed as family to our tables. In Christ's name we pray, Amen. Jane Deren, Ph.D., Education for Justice
http://bit.ly/CatholicAction4ImmigrantChildren	http://bit.ly/CatholicAction4ImmigrantChildren
	 Prayer for Children in Immigration Detention We pray for the immigrant children who have died in U.S. detention camps: May their souls rest in peace, May their families find solace. May their memory move us Not to peace but to outrage, Then to advocacy and action. We pray for the children Still in detention camps, confused, afraid, longing for some security, Longing for family to console them. May we recognize them as Our children, needing our love, Our care and protection. May we be present to their suffering, And may it move us to active concern So we can work toward the day No children are detained but rather Welcomed into our communities, Welcomed as family to our tables. In Christ's name we pray, Amen. Jane Deren, Ph.D., Education for Justice http://bit.ly/CatholicAction4ImmigrantChildren